

CIVIL SIDE.

Addendum dated the 28th March 1918 to Rule of Practice No. 153, dated the 28th January 1913:

The Chief Court directs that the following new rule be inserted as Rule 2A of the said Rule of Practice after the present Rule 2 and that the words "or subject to the provisions of Rule 2A by a letter sent by a messenger or by post" be added to the first sentence of the present Rule 2.

"2 A. (1) Applications for copies of judgments, orders, decrees, oral evidence (depositions) and order sheet-entries (Judge's notes) may be made by letter addressed to the presiding officer of the court (in the Chief Court to the Deputy Registrar) or when the records of which copies are required are in the Central Record Room, to the District Judge.

(2) The application shall contain the particulars required by clauses (a) and (b) of Rule 2, and also a full address to which all correspondence regarding the copies is to be sent, and the name of the post office from which delivery is to be made to the applicant.

NOTE.—In computing the time required for the preparation of a copy, the date on which a call for copying sheets or additional sheets is despatched from the office concerned, will be considered to be the date on which copying sheets or additional sheets are called for and the date on which the sheets are actually received in the office will be considered to be the date on which they are supplied."
